End of Bible records

Mr. McFadden states that his granddaughters:

Betty McFadden Johnson married Walter H. Dustman

Frances Patricia Johnson married R. W. Stanfield

Barbara Jane Johnson married Lieut Geo Keller and had a baby son born Christmas week 1947, in Miami, Fla

Mr McFadden also stated that Yvonne and Robert McFadden were children of Richard W. McFadden and wife Faye Collins McFadden.

In Mr. W.C. McFadden's scrap book is a long and beautifully written newspaper clipping about the death of his Mother Mrs M.J. McFadden on Friday afternoon July 26, 1918 in VanWort, Ohio.

It states that Mrs M.J. McFadden was born in Richmond Ohio in 1839, coming to VanWort in 1873. For 29 years she was connected with the public schools of VanWort. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church, the Sorosis Club, and the Crusaders of the early '70s working for prohibition Mrs McFadden was survived by three sons:

Walter C. McFadden of Tampa Fla.
Charles L. McFadden of Cincinnati O.
Harry C. McFadden of New York.

Interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

In same scrap book is a clipping about the birth of a son to Mr and Mrs C.L. McFadden of Buckeye Cottage, Madison Lake, Minn. This child is the fifth generation living, having grandmothers Mrs M.J. McFadden and Mrs Jno Man Liow, VanWort O. Great-grandmothers Mrs Margaret Clark, of Mansfield Ohio. and Mrs J.F. Robinson, Larwell Ind. and Mrs H. C. Van Liow, South Bend Ind. Great-grand mother Mrs Jorod Wells, then in her 92nd year, Brunswick, Medina County Ohio.

note-altho it is not stated, the recurrence of the name Clark in the McFadden family, suggests Mrs Margaret Clark was mother of Mrs M.J. McFadden.

Other newspaper clippings show Mr. W.C. McFadden lived for a time in Horkimor and Buffalo New York, before coming to Tampa Fla as agent for Plant System. In 1904 he was Toller of the American National Bank when it was organized in Tampa. He remained with the Bank, until it merged with another Tampa Bank., and Mr. McFadden opened the first Filling Station in Tampa at corner of Grand Central and Boulevard. After the death of his wife in 1947, he moved to St. Petersburg Fla to live with his son Richard.

Parrott Family records

These records are written in very faded ink on back of two maps out of Olney's school geography printed by Pratt, Oakley & Co. Entered according to Act of Congress in year 1860, Clerk's Office of District Court of Connecticut. These two loose leaves were sent to me by Mrs A.V. Snell, Colby Kansas a daughter of Simpson Parrott (record in Balas Bible) they had evidently been copied years ago from the old John Parrott Bible in possession of Bernie Parrott Rose Hill Va in 1930. Since then I cannot learn what became of the ancient Bible. Bernie was a sister of Simpson Parrott.

Newspaper clipping pasted in Bible, from the Independent Corning, NY
July 15th 1876:

Our townsman, Mr. E. P. Rogers, returned last evening after an absence of a few days in attendance at the funeral of his mother who died at the residence of her eldest son, Clark Rogers, at Alfred Center, Allegheny Co., N.Y. on the 7th of July, last. She was the daughter of Shubael Preston, a soldier of the Revolution, and was born in the state of Connecticut, June 27, 1786 and hence had survived her 90th birthday. She, with her husband, Ephraim Rogers, with a family of 3 sons and 1 daughter, became pioneers in the forests of Allegheny Co. in 1822, where she buried her husband in 1843, since which time she has been a widow, residing alternately with her three sons, two of whom only survive. She was buried by the side of her deceased husband and daughter in the town of Little Genesee. She was eminently a woman of Christian piety and virtue, and in an exceptional degree, lived a life of self sacrificing usefulness to others.

Pensacola, Fla.

History of the First Baptist Church.

On Sunday, May 2, 1847 the first Baptist Church was organized by Alexander Travis and elder Joseph Mitchell and called Pensacola Baptist Church of Christ. Other leaders in the organization were Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hendrix, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mouldin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Steels and Mr. Jamison.

Elder Travis, one of the organizers, was a missionary in S. Alabama and Florida. He traveled on horseback and on foot, often sleeping in the open and often without food. When he reached Pensacola he met with the Baptist here and soon began to look for an organization, which was effected. The first church seems to have met in a house, probably the home of Aaron Hendrix. Record is made of the services being held by candle light.

There were 224 white members in the newly organized church, 50 men and 73 women, 222 colored members, 124 men and 98 women. The colored members have the names of prominent old families. Services for the colored people were held in the afternoon by the same preachers that the whites had.

In 1850 an arm of the church was formed at the Navy Yard upon the request of the Baptist living there.

In 1852 the church was incorporated as The Pensacola Baptist Church to comply with the laws of Florida.

In this year the first church was erected on Government Street. In May 1866 a baptistry was built costing $ 150.00

The minutes show the first mission offering September 1866 amounting to $ 5.00 for associational minutes and 50.00 for our missionary.

The church passed through trying times from 1866 to 1874. In 1867 the church building was seized by federal authorities and turned over to the negro members of the church and remained in their possession until 1873 when it was restored to the original owners. In 1870 a Sabbath School was organized. The old church was reorganized October 9, 1870, with no colored members and they were not allowed in its membership. It was at this time that the name "First Baptist Church of Pensacola" was adopted.

It was during the ministry of Rev. J.H. Curry, the 10th pastor, that the need for a larger and better church in a more suitable location developed. A special meeting of the church was called for April 1, 1891, to discuss the matter. A resolution was unanimously adopted declaring it to be the sense of the church that a new building was needed to meet the demands of the congregation, and the work to begin at once. A building Com. was appointed as follows; Mr. J.W. Burton, Mr. H.D. Chisley, Rev. F.C. Waite, Mr. T.V. Kessler and Mr. A.V. Clubbs.

Mr. Horton was largely responsible for our magnificent organ. It was built especially for this church. Mr. Horton was organist for a number of years.

The first church building located on Government St. was sold in 1892. Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Chipley gave a deed to the property where our auditorium now stands on July 6, 1894. The present church building proper was erected during the ministry of Rev. A.P. Pugh and the first service held was held on April 20, 1895.

We had two ministers who lost their lives in yellow fever epidemics, Rev. P.H. Lundy in 1873 and Rev. Z.J. Owens in 1887.

The first world war came and the church did her share in caring for the great number of recruits for the army and navy at Ft. Barrancas and the Naval Air Station, and young men from our church answered the call to arms.

Dr. A.J. Moncrief became our pastor in 1921. During his ministry the church was enlarged and redecorated. His son A.J. Jr. was ordained to the ministry in our church.

This church has been the nucleus from which other Baptist churches have been organized: East Hill, Whitfield Memorial, Seventh Ave. and Southside Mission.

It was during the ministry of Dr. G.J. Rousseau that the property east of the church was purchased. Dr. Allen S.

Gifts who succeeded Dr. Rousseau, refinanced the church debt of $ 25,000.00 so that it could be gradually wiped out. The state convention again met with our church December 5-6 1933.

Dr. Wallace R. Rogers came to us in July 1939. Under his leadership a large educational building has been erected, the church has been redeccrated, the property north of the church has been purchased, a southside mission has been organized, plans for a Baptist Hospital are being perfected. Dr. Rogers was elected president of the Florida Baptist Convention for 1946-1947.

In the second world war we maintained a well organized service center. In the armed forces we had 150 men, including three deacons, and several young women serving as nurses and in other branches. The opportunity to minister to service personnel in the Pensacola area has been taken advantage of by our church, both in war and in peace.

Since 1939, when Dr. Rogers came to us, our membership has grown to 2,292. Our gifts for all purposes for the year ending September 30, 1946 totaled $ 82,206.32.
